

Integrated Neurological Services

Helping people with Stroke, Parkinson's, Multiple Sclerosis and other neurological conditions

You are invited to join us for a lecture with the President of the Royal Horticultural Society,

Elizabeth Banks will be giving a talk in support of INS

on "Happiness is Gardening"
Wednesday 25th April, 2012

Bar opens at 6.30pm, Lecture starts at 7.30pm

At Hampton School, Performing Arts Centre, Hanworth Road, Hampton, Middlesex TW12 3HD
Please apply early due to limited capacity • For further information, please call INS at 020 8755 4000

Mrs Banks was elected in 2010 as the first woman President of the RHS in its over-200 year history.

She is an outstanding landscape architect, known for her work on both historic and contemporary gardens.

After a distinguished international career with Land Use Consultants, she set up her own consultancy in 1987 and has since won 5 Gold Medals for gardens at Chelsea. With her husband, she manages the 70 acre Hergest Croft Gardens, Kington, Herefordshire.

Mrs Banks is a forceful and often controversial speaker on radio and in conferences, who has lively and influential views on the practice of horticulture and its place in contemporary culture.

Important Note: There are two types of ticket. For those who wish to attend just the lecture, the price of the tickets is £18.00 and for those who wish to partake in the buffet supper with a glass of wine, which follows the lecture, the tickets will be £28.00.
